SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: Acts 2:14, 22b~28

Psalm 16: Lord, you will show me the path of life.

Second Reading: Peter: 1: 17~21

Gospel: Luke: 24:13~35

hope are all woven through each reading, inviting us to share again in the Eastertide celebration.

In the First Reading, Peter reminds the crowd that, in spite of the terrible injustice done to Jesus, God has shown victory over death and raised Jesus to glory. With this comes the power of the Holy Spirit, now outpoured for us all.

In the Second Reading we hear Peter again, speaking of how Jesus gave his life as a 'ransom' for our sins. Because of this, all who believe can have faith and hope in God.

We join two of Jesus's disciples in the Gospel on their journey to Emmaus, blind to the identity of the risen Lord as he walks with them. When Jesus reveals himself to them in the breaking of bread, they finally recognise him, just as he disappears from their sight.

Unlike the disciples, we have never seen Jesus himself ~ but because of the faith we have been given, we can see and recognise him in the people and situations around us. This week, let's pray for the wisdom and courage to respond wherever we see Jesus in the needs of others.

ARCHDIOCESE MONTH OF APRIL

April is dedicated to the Holy Spirit, a time to deepen our relationship with the third person of the Holy Trinity. As Christians, we reflect on the profound role of the Holy Spirit in our lives, guiding us, comforting
